

St Francis Admonition Day 11.

Of avoiding the Sin of Envy.

The Apostle affirms that “no person can say the Lord Jesus but by the Holy Spirit,” and “there is no one who does good, no not one.” So, whoever, envies their brother or sister, on account of the good which the Lord says or does in their brethren, commits a sin akin to blasphemy.

This is because they envy the Most High Himself, who says and does all that is good.
