

St Francis Admonition Day 15.

Of Knowing the Spirit of God.

A servant of God may know if they have had the Spirit of God: if when the Lord works some good through them, their body—since it is ever at variance with all that is good—is not puffed up. But rather they become viler in their own sight, and they esteem themselves less than others.