

St Francis Admonition Day 16.

Of Patience.

While a servant of God is content, they do not know how much interior patience and humility they have. But when the time comes that those who ought to please them, go against them. Then they have as much patience and humility as they show at this time, and no more.