

St Francis Admonition Day 21.

Of Compassion toward one's Neighbour.

Blessed is the person who bears with their neighbour according to the frailty of the neighbour's nature as much as they would wish to be borne with by the neighbour, if they were like their neighbour.